University of Rhode Island
DigitalCommons@URI

Library Impact Statements | Collection Management

10-6-2010

Library Impact Statement for ECN 333 Economics and the Law

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.uri.edu/lib_cd_impct

Part of the Economics Commons, and the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation
"Library Impact Statement for ECN 333 Economics and the Law" (2010). Library Impact Statements. Paper 6.
http://digitalcommons.uri.edu/lib_cd_impct/6

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Collection Management at DigitalCommons@URI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Library Impact Statements by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@etal.uri.edu.

LIBRARY IMPACT STATEMENT
LIBRARIAN'S ASSESSMENT

Course: ECN 333 Economics and the Law

Department, College: Department of Economics, College of Arts and Sciences

Faculty Member: Prof. Robert Van Horn

Date returned to Faculty: 6 October 2010

Librarian Completing Assessment: Prof. Andrée J. Rathemacher

The Library Impact Statement for ECN 333 Economics and the Law indicates that students will not be conducting research in the course that will require the use of the library. Further, the Library Impact Statement lists no critical journals, monographs, or electronic resources that the library must have in order to support the course.

Based on this information, I conclude that the University Libraries can meet the needs of ECN 333 Economics and the Law with no additional resources. In my role as Subject Selector for the Department of Economics, I support the addition of this course without reservation.

Andrée J. Rathemacher
Associate Professor
Head of Acquisitions, University Libraries
Subject Selector for the Department of Economics