Library Rights Statement

I. Public Access to Your University of Rhode Island Thesis/Dissertation

The University of Rhode Island requires all doctoral dissertations and master's theses to be deposited electronically via ProQuest's Dissertation Publishing service.

After you submit to ProQuest, ProQuest delivers each dissertation or thesis to the University Libraries. The University Libraries will deposit this copy into DigitalCommons@URI, the University's digital repository, making it openly available via the Internet. If you do not wish your dissertation or thesis to be available immediately in DigitalCommons@URI because you are planning a patent application or formal publication, please choose one of the embargo (delayed release) options.

Please indicate your preference for public access to your thesis/dissertation:

immediate release 6 months 1 year 2 years

Major Professor signature in acknowledgement of this decision: _____

Note that this form does not create the embargo. You will need to select this option electronically when you submit your document to ProQuest. A permanent embargo is not permitted; therefore, you are advised to omit from your work any information that must never be made public.

In presenting this thesis/dissertation in partial fulfillment of the requirements for an advanced degree at the University of Rhode Island, I agree that the University Libraries shall make it freely available for inspection.

It is understood that any copying or publication of this thesis/dissertation for financial gains shall not be allowed without my written permission.

I represent and warrant that my manuscript is my original work, does not infringe or violate the rights of others, and that I have the right to make the grant conferred by this non-exclusive agreement. Whenever possible, I have obtained permission of the copyright owner to grant to the University of Rhode Island the rights required by this Agreement.

I represent that I have fulfilled any right of review or other obligation required by contract or agreement with any agency or organization that has sponsored or supported my research.

I acknowledge that I retain ownership rights to the copyright of my work. I also retain the right to use all or part of my manuscript in future works I may create.
