THE TIMES OF HARVEY MILK

“I know that you cannot live on hope alone, but without it, life is not worth living. And You... And You... And You... Gotta give em hope...”

The movie documents the political career of Harvey Milk, who was San Francisco's first openly gay supervisor. The rise of Milk from a neighborhood activist to becoming a symbol of gay political achievement, through to his assassination at San Francisco's city hall, and the Dan White trial and aftermath.

Come watch this with us as a prelude to the upcoming release of MILK. Discussions and Desserts will follow.
