Assessment of:

- the suitability of existing resources;
- the new resources required to support the program;
- the information skills education required by the students;
and
- the funds needed for library materials and services.

1. Summary of existing library holdings in relevant subject categories, including supporting collections from HELIN. Amount of money now allocated in the program area.

The Library's existing resources are sufficient to support this new course.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

The Library has current online subscriptions to all of the essential journals listed in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the program (including media, computing, or other nonprint materials)?

No new resources are required.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

Since this course is at the graduate level no library instruction sessions should be needed.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

No new materials are necessary.
