The 14th Annual University of Rhode Island Symposium on Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning Issues

Connecting Communities: Looking Back, Moving Forward

Wednesday, March 26th – Saturday, March 29th

University of Rhode Island's Gay. Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Center is proud to announce its 14th Annual Symposium on Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning Issues entitled, Connecting Communities: Looking Back, Moving Forward, from March 26th – March 29th. The symposium is comprised of several programs and workshops that affect the lives of GLBT communities and individuals nationwide. All symposium events are open and free to the public. Additional information for the symposium as well as schedule of programs and other GLBT Center events can be found at www.uri.edu/glbt.

The symposium is running in concurrence with the US Holocaust Museum's traveling exhibit, Nazi Persecution of Homosexuals 1933-1945, from February 14 – March 29, 2008 at the Fine Arts Gallery on URI's Kingston campus. Information on the exhibit and Art Gallery Schedule can be viewed at http://www.uri.edu/artgalleries/pages/Schedule.htm

For further information about the symposium or the exhibit, please contact Andrew Winters, Assistant to the Vice President of Student Affairs for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Programs and Services at Andrew@uri.edu or (401) 874-2894.
