

“It’s the things in common that make relationships enjoyable, but it’s the little differences that make them interesting.”

-Todd Ruthman

Tucker

Merrow

Hutchinson

Peck

Fayerweather

Heathman

Gorham

Aldrich

Ellery

Hopkins

Burnside

Coddington

Dorr

Barlow

Weldin

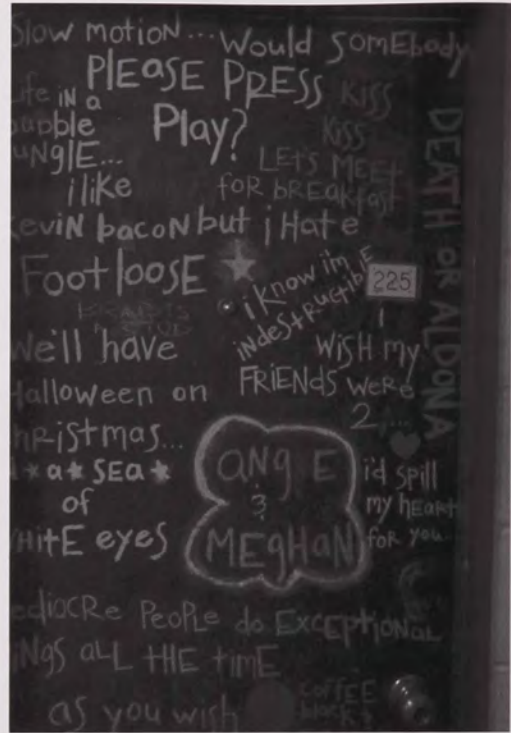

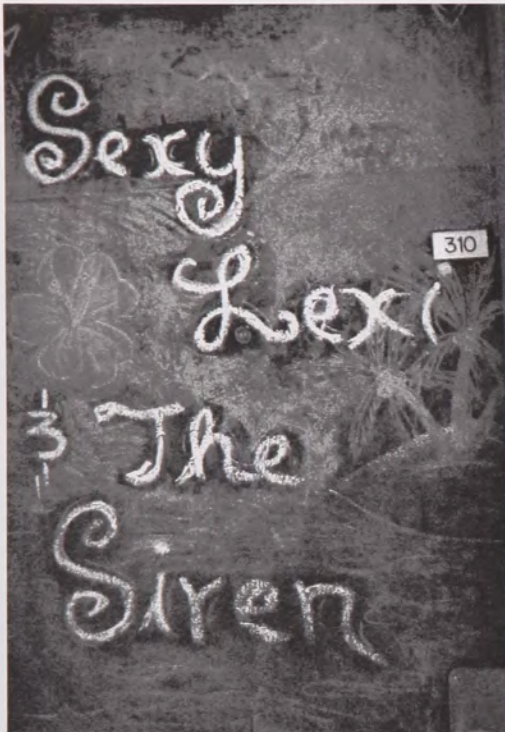

Adams

Browning

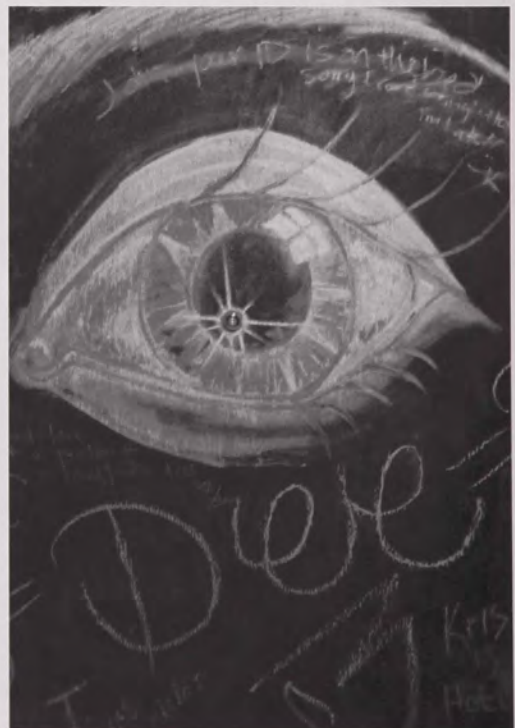

Bressler

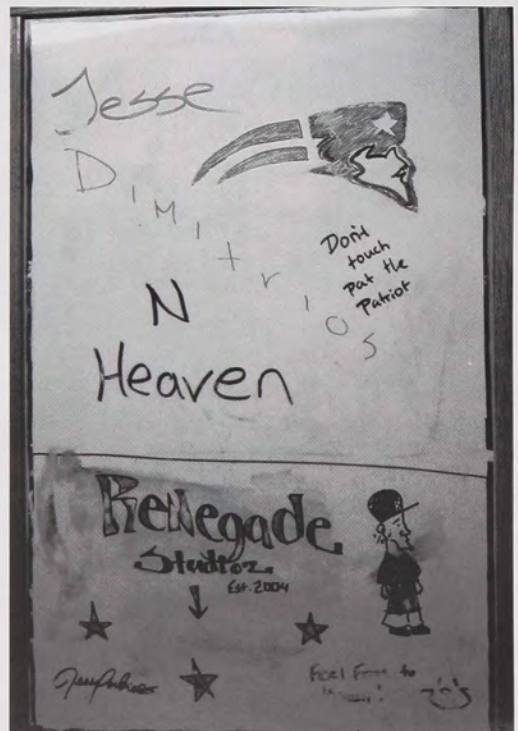

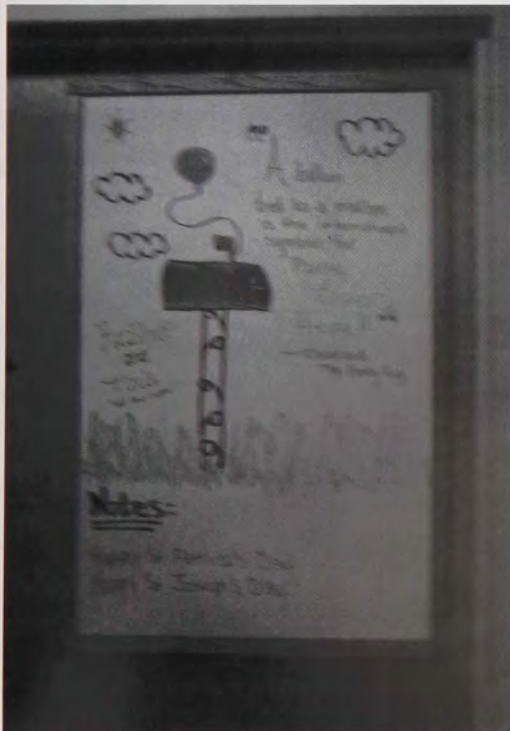

Butterfield

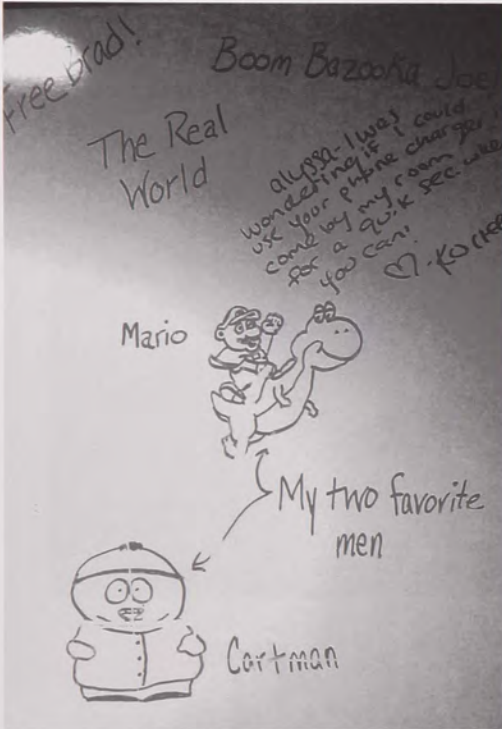

The Doors Say it All...

More Doors...

"Living in the residence halls has been an interesting experience, not only from being a resident but also from being an R.A. I've been exposed to many new thoughts and ideas because of the different people I have met."

-Melissa
Junior
Merrow Hall R.A.

"The 'dorm life' is not as great as it is hyped up to be. The rooms are still old and small. What's the controversy about? Weldin, Bressler, Butterfield, Barlow: great. All the other dorms: not so great!"

Bwann

Senior

Former Tucker Hall Resident

"The best thing about graduating?
Not living in the dorms!

-Ruth

Senior

Former Burnside Hall Resident

Life on the inside..

"I like the privacy of living in a single. I wish the internet connection was more efficient, though. And the dorms are too far away from the classrooms."

-Robert

Freshman

Dorr Hall

Resident

"Living in the dorms was great!

We were all friends on my floor. It was like a big fun family."

Rachel

Sophomore

Former Tucker

Hall Resident

"I lived in Heathman for two years and it was a lot of fun, minus the fact that it was out in China. But we had access to the best parking on campus. Go Heathman! Woohoo!"

-Jenni
Junior

Former Heathman Hall
Resident

"Living in the dorms for three years has been quite the experience. Sometimes a break felt necessary but I truly enjoyed living in them. Meeting so many new people has been exciting and there was always so much to do. Going into my senior year next year, I think living on campus has been a great experience and I've learned a lot from the community lifestyle."

-Denise
Junior

Butterfield Hall Resident

"Tucker washing machines "stink!"

-Kevin
Sophomore
Tucker Hall Resident

'Dorm life has its ups
and downs.
Downs: Dirty
bathrooms, loud
neighbors, annoying
roomates. Ups..Oops,
maybe there isn't any!

-Vilma

Senior

Former Peck Hall
Resident

'Dorm life on the URI campus was actually a really rewarding experience that I believe everyone should do at least once. Just the ability to be able to look out your door and have a conversation with someone random is something exciting in itself. Being able to have the freedom to come and go as you please is one fo the greatest experiences of my life.

The people you meet in "dorm Life" are going to be some of the best friendships to make."

-Patrick

Junior

Former Bressler/
Fayerweather Hall Resident

"The freshmen are extremely lucky to get to live in the big-6. I'm jealous."

-Jess

Freshman

Weldin Hall Resident