CHAPTER 46
RHODE ISLAND STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS

SECTION.
16-46-1. Declaration of policy.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to join with the federal government, private patrons, and institutions and professional organizations concerned with the arts to insure that the role of the arts in the life of Rhode Island community will continue to grow and will play an ever more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens.

History of Section.

16-46-2. Creation of commission.—There is hereby created and established a state commission to be known as the “Rhode Island state council on the arts,” hereinafter referred to as the commission.

History of Section.

16-46-3. Membership of commission.—The commission shall consist of nine (9) members, broadly representative of all fields of the performing and fine arts, to be appointed by the governor subject to the advice and consent of the senate from among citizens of Rhode Island who are widely recognized for their interest, competence, and regard for the arts. The commission shall consist of members in such numbers as the governor shall recommend to the Senate by association on the basis of art criticism or on the basis of the arts generally.

History of Section.

16-46-4. Terms of members.—Each member’s term shall be the first day of the month following the first day of the month of his appointment. A member appointed at any time other than the first day of the month of his appointment shall hold office until the expiration of his term; any unexpired term shall be filled in the same manner. Each member shall be eligible for reappointment as such.

History of Section.

16-46-5. Organization of commission.—The commission shall consist of a chairman and such other members as the commission shall designate. The commission shall meet the first day of the month of the appointment of each member and at such other times as it may designate. The commission shall form a quorum of its members.

16-46-6. Administration of the commission.—The commission shall have the power and authority to make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

*—Sections 16-46-3, 16-46-4, 16-46-5 and 16-46-6 have been amended. See revised sections in attachment.
petence, and experience in connection with the performing, visual and environmental arts. Such appointments shall be made without regard to party, but due consideration shall be given to the recommendations of representative civic, educational, and professional associations and groups, concerned with or engaged in the production or presentation of the performing, visual and environmental arts generally.

History of Section.

16-46-4. Terms of members.—The term of office of each member shall be three (3) years. Forthwith upon the passage of this act, the governor shall appoint three (3) members to serve until the first day of March, 1968, three (3) members to serve until the first day of March, 1969, and three (3) members to serve until the first day of March, 1970, and until their respective successors shall be appointed and qualified. In the month of February, 1968, and in each year thereafter, the governor shall appoint three (3) members to hold office until the first day of March in the third year after their appointment and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified. Any vacancy which may occur in said commission shall be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term. Any member of the commission shall be eligible to succeed himself for one (1) full term, but shall not thereafter be eligible for reappointment during a one (1) year period following the expiration of his second term.

History of Section.

16-46-5. Organization of commission.—Forthwith upon their appointment and upon the appointment of any new member for a full term, the members shall meet and elect one (1) of their number as chairman, another as vice chairman, and another as secretary. The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the commission. Four (4) members shall constitute a quorum and the vote of four (4) members shall be necessary for any action taken by the commission. No vacancy in the membership of the commission shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all of the rights and perform all of the duties of the commission. Meetings of the commission shall be held at stated times, and upon one (1) week’s notice
16-46-6. Administration of the commission.—The chairman may employ, and at pleasure remove, an administrative assistant and a secretary and fix their compensation within the amounts made available for such purposes.

Office space for the commission shall be provided by the department of administration and the chairman shall annually request an appropriation of such funds as he deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

History of Section.

16-46-7. Duties of commission.—The duties of the commission shall be

(1) to stimulate and encourage throughout Rhode Island the study and presentation of the performing, visual and environmental arts and public interest and participation therein;

(2) to survey and assess the needs of the arts throughout Rhode Island and to make recommendations to the general assembly and the governor to encourage the arts so as to meet the legitimate needs and aspirations of the citizens of the state;

(3) to take such steps as may be necessary and appropriate to expand the state's cultural resources and to encourage the growth of local community arts councils;

(4) to encourage and protect freedom of artistic expression in Rhode Island;

(5) to cooperate with the commissioner of education in all areas in which the arts are applicable to primary and secondary education including the use of educational television and other media in the promotion and presentation of the arts.

History of Section.

16-46-8. Authority of commission.—The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to hold public and private hearings, to enter into contracts, within the limit of funds available therefor, with individuals, organizations, and institutions for services furthering the objectives of the commission's programs; to enter into contracts, within the limit of funds available thereto, with local and regional associations for cooperative endeavors furthering the objectives of the commission's programs; to accept gifts, contributions, and bequests of unrestricted funds from individuals, foundations, corporations, and other organizations or institutions for the purpose of furthering the objectives of the commission's programs; to make and sign any agreements and to do and perform any acts that may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The commission may request and shall receive from any department, division, board, bureau, commission, or agency of the state such assistance and data as will enable it properly to carry out its powers and duties hereunder. The commission may empanel such advisors as it deems necessary.

History of Section.

16-46-9. National endowment for the arts.—The commission is the official agency of this state to receive and disburse any funds made available by the national endowment for the arts.

History of Section.

16-46-10. Report.—The commission shall prepare and submit a report of its activities to the governor and the general assembly in the month of February each year, which report may also include its recommendations for legislative action.
