Ladies on the Couch

Ladies on the Couch is one of the few two women shows dealing with homosexuality currently running anywhere. Using comical sketches, a couple of guitars and a couch, they open up the audience to hear their biting message. With their satirical strength, they explore issues such as discrimination, family confrontation, and romantic relationships between same sex couples.

"...this is a play that offers more honey than vinegar, and in doing that makes a controversial subject a little easier to swallow."
