The Department of Interior's Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service is actively seeking candidates for the position of Keeper of the National Register, GS-15, $38,160 to $47,500 per annum. The National Register is the centralized listing of cultural resource properties recognized for their historical significance by the Federal Government.

The Keeper has paramount responsibility for the nomination, registration and planning functions derived from laws governing the preservation of historic properties as well as providing meaningful guidance and responsibility over a full professional, technical and support staff.

Applicants must meet the qualification requirements for the position at the GS-15 level. Qualifying experience must include a master's or a higher degree, or equivalent experience, with a specialization in either history, architectural history or archeology, in addition to a strong background in managerial skills. The incumbent must possess through education or experience a general knowledge of architecture, industrial archeology, information dissemination through publications, scientific methods of research and the general state-of-the-art in current historic preservation. The above experience must be of the quality and degree to demonstrate the abilities and characteristics to carry out those functions that are unique to our organization.

Applicants wishing to forward a completed SF-171, Personal Qualifications Statement, should direct them to Ms. Terrie Fajardo, Personnel Management Specialist, Pension Building, 440 G Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20243. For additional information, Ms. Fajardo may be reached on 202-343-4275. Applications must be postmarked no later than June 8 1979. EXT. 66 to July 6, 1979
