Mr. Michel Werboff
412 Cathedral Parkway
New York, New York 10025

Dear Michel:

Thank you for your warm letter which was received just about the time of the election in Rhode Island. Please accept my apologies for being so tardy in replying. I have just returned from an extended trip abroad and am now able to get caught up on this long overdue letter to you.

I am grateful for the news of Mr. Grado's appointment as President of the League. He sounds like an excellent person to take over Frank Wright's responsibilities.

As far as the Arts Endowment is concerned, I would suggest writing a short note to Liv indicating your interests and how you might be of service.

With warmest wishes to you during this holiday season.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
