Honorable Claiborne Pell
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Pell:

The Trustees Committee of the American Association of Museums is holding a special meeting in Washington on Friday, June 4, immediately following the annual meeting of the AAM. The topics for discussion are federal legislation and federal financing which affect museums. The meeting will be held in the Senate, Room S-207.

The Trustees Committee, as representatives of the governing bodies of the more than 1200 member institutions of the AAM, are extremely interested in the views of the congressmen who have been leaders in comprehending the problems of museums and offering support. We would be very grateful if we could hear your thoughts on these topics which are of vital importance to all trustees.

Could you take time from your busy schedule to speak to us for about twenty minutes between 10:45 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. on Friday, June 4? We expect an attendance of approximately 75 to 100 trustees. We would be very pleased if you could join us for luncheon, also to be held in S-207, following the adjournment at 12:15. If you will be available, I shall ask Mrs. Jane North, Trustees Committee Coordinator, to call your office and confirm the exact details.

A preliminary schedule of the AAM Annual Meeting is enclosed; an outline of the Trustees Program is on the second page. The final program for the Trustees Committee meeting will be published in March in the AAM Trustees Newsletter, and Mrs. North would appreciate having a biography and photograph of you for that issue.

Your presence will contribute greatly to the success of our meeting, so I shall hope for an affirmative response. Warm regards.

Sincerely,

George C. Seybolt /jwn

George C. Seybolt, Chairman
Museum Trustees Steering Committee

SPECIAL FEATURES OF AAM MEETING

Small Museums Exchange

This popular feature of last year's meeting is being repeated on a larger scale in 1976. Throughout the week of the convention it will provide an opportunity for small museum staffs to meet and discuss mutual problems and exchange ideas. Suggestions for discussion topics, information, publications, bibliographies to be presented in the Exchange should be sent immediately to: Cindy Sherrell, Director of Museum Services, Texas Historical Commission, P. O. Box 12276, Austin, Texas, 78711.

Special Interest Committees (formerly Affinity Groups)

Those wishing to have a room for a meeting should contact Cindy Sherrell immediately at the address above.

Counseling Services will be available throughout the meeting from staff of the NEA, NEH, HEW, National Science Foundation, National Museum Act Grants Administration, and the Accreditation Commission of the AAM.

Ad Hoc Rooms

Two or three rooms will be available throughout the convention for groups wishing to have impromptu meetings. Room will be assigned during the convention on request. No advance reservations.
