Dear Mr. Greene:

Thank you very much for your letter in which you express an interest in commemorating the service of General Nathaniel Greene of Rhode Island.

I apologize for the length of time it has taken me to answer your letter, Subaŕehŕue just recently returned from a trip abroad.

I very much appreciate knowing of your interest in General Greene and will keep your thoughts in mind as I consider what would be an appropriate gesture of recognition for him.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,
