WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

January 22, 1992

Dear Michael:

Thank you for your thoughtful letter of January 12, 1992 and, more particularly, thank you for your telephone call which cheered me up. I only hope that I can do the things you do if and when I am 94!

I am asking Irene Maceil of my office to follow up on the visa problem of Mrs. Halina Kudsin and she will be in direct touch with you.

Take care of yourself, old friend. If you come to Washington, I would love to see you.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
