Heterosexism and Homophobia

Date: January 22, 1992

As our University continues to increase its awareness, recognition, and integration of diversity, the Committee to Eliminate Heterosexism and Homophobia invites a representative of your organization to join us at a short, afternoon teleconference "Understanding and Meeting the Needs of Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Students" will be a live broadcast on Thursday, February 6, 1992 from 1:00pm - 3:30pm at Rhode Island College. This event will focus on understanding the needs of the students and "developing campus policies on non-discrimination and anti-harrassment." This teleconference may be helpful for students, as well as faculty and staff, of all sexual orientations, to achieve a supportive environment within every University organization. The Committee hopes to see a broad representation of URI students at RIC and will assist in coordinating transportation. Please contact me at X2568 for further information by Monday, February 3. This is an opportunity to challenge or support your knowledge about many issues, to meet students from other colleges in RI, and to promote URI's pride in diversity!

Sincerely,

Lee Peebles
