LIBRARY SERVICES AND CONSTRUCTION ACT
AMENDMENTS OF 1989

SEPTEMBER 12 (legislative day, SEPTEMBER 6), 1989.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. KENNEDY, from the Committee on Labor and Human Resources, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. 1291]

The Committee on Labor and Human Resources, to which was referred the bill (S. 1291) to extend and amend the Library Services and Construction Act, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon with amendments and recommends that the bill as amended do pass.

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

The Library Services and Construction Act was first enacted as the Library Services Act and was signed into law by President Eisenhower in 1956. It was established to assist states in extending and improving library services to rural and underserved areas. At that time it was found that only one in six Americans had adequate access to public library services.

In 1964, the name of the Act was changed to the Library Services and Construction Act when its purpose was broadened to include service to urban areas and assistance for public library construction projects. In succeeding years LSCA was further broadened to include improvement of library services to the physically handicapped, institutionalized, disadvantaged, elderly, persons with limited English-speaking ability and Indian tribes and Hawaiian natives. Provisions were also added to assist states in promoting interlibrary cooperation and to help them afford updated technological equipment. Libraries continue to use LSCA funds to respond to the user's needs in this new era of information, ethnic diversity, and the global economy. LSCA funds reach all fifty states and protectorates allowing each state the flexibility to meet its individual library needs and goals.

The Library Services and Construction Act was last reauthorized in 1984 (P.L. 98-480) and amended in 1988 (P.L. 100-569). S. 1291, the Library Services and Construction Act Amendments of 1989, extends the current authorization through FY 1994. S. 1291 also adds a new Title VII to the Act which provides funds for research and assessment of current public library programs. The titles contained in S. 1291 are as follows:

Title I—Public Library Services
Title II—Public Library Construction
Title III—Interlibrary Cooperation
Title IV—Library Services for Indian Tribes
Title V—Foreign Language Materials Acquisition
Title VI—Library Literacy Programs
Title VII—Evaluation and Assessment

Titles I through III allocate grants to the states on the basis of a formula that includes a state matching requirement. Title IV is a set-aside of funds appropriated for Titles I through III to provide library services to American Indians and Native Hawaiians. Titles V and VI are discretionary grant programs administered by the Department of Education where awards are based on national competition. Title VII is administrative funds for the Department of Education.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

The Subcommittee on Education, Arts and Humanities held a joint hearing with the House Subcommittee on Postsecondary Education on April 11, 1989. Testimony was received from ten witnesses representing several different perspectives: the Administration, the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies, the American Library Association, Chicago Public Library, Seneca Nation of Indians and a number of public librarians from across the country. Additional written testimony was received from individuals and organizations representing a broad cross-section of the public library field including: the Association of Research Libraries, and Literacy Volunteers of America.

SIMON AMENDMENT

Senator Simon offered an amendment that would recognize the increasing demand on libraries for foreign language materials and the escalating costs of these materials.

Title V of the Library Services and Construction Act provides grants to state and local libraries for foreign language material acquisition. This amendment waives the maximum grant amount available under Title V for major urban resource libraries (as defined in the Library Services and Construction Act). The amendment allows for no more than thirty percent of the total funds appropriated for Title V to provide grants to major urban resource libraries in excess of the existing $15,000 grant cap. Seventy percent of the sums appropriated will continue to be distributed on a competitive basis to rural and urban communities alike.

The amendment recognizes that in states where major urban resource libraries exist, that these libraries are a resource for foreign language materials for smaller libraries. For example, forty percent of all information requests to the Chicago Public Library from other libraries in the State of Illinois are for foreign language materials. Recognizing the greater financial burden on Major Urban Resource Libraries, the Committee adopted this language to encourage major urban resource libraries to apply for Title V funding. The Committee also recognizes that libraries serving smaller communities have a need for foreign language materials. To meet this need, the Committee encourages smaller libraries to apply for grants under Title V.

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

As the Committee began its review of the Library Services and Construction Act in anticipation of this reauthorization, it was generally agreed that significant changes to the Act should await the recommendations of the White House Conference on Library and Information Services. This conference, which was authorized in the 100th Congress, is to be held not later than September 1991. Preliminary conferences in the states will occur at which important issues currently facing the library and information services communities will be discussed at length. The Committee believes that it is prudent to await the findings of this Conference so that its recommendations can be made part of any future Congressional discussion of this Act.

In response to testimony received, the Committee decided to proceed with a reauthorization that provides minor adjustments in the existing program and makes necessary technical modifications. The most noteworthy programmatic changes from current law concern an added emphasis on technology within the framework of LSCA I, II and III and on the preservation of library materials within LSCA II and III. In addition, Title I activities have been expanded to include literacy and child-care activities; a new title VII has been added for the evaluation and assessment of LSCA by the Department of Education and various technical amendments have been included to increase flexibility and efficiency of current LSCA programs.

TECHNOLOGY ENHANCEMENT

The Committee has amended Title II of LSCA to expand its focus from the renovation and construction of public library facilities to include their enhancement through technology. Witnesses before the Subcommittee verified the need for access and upgrading of outdated equipment to meet the needs of the twenty-first century and a global economy.

The Committee amended Title II by the addition of “technology enhancement” to the name of the title, adding a definition of the term “technology enhancement”, and expanding the meanings of the terms “construction” and “equipment”. Jane Hatch, the Director of the Southwest Kansas Library System and the Dodge City Public Library, noted in her testimony that the “agricultural producer, manufacturer or student in the very smallest rural community needs access to that global information network just as badly as anyone else.” Yet the costs for the equipment that provides such access is high. “We are talking now about libraries that are used to using typewriters that are twenty years old, and now we are introducing technology that will have to be upgraded and replaced in four to five years to make it available and able to enter into this global market place.”
Many libraries have not been able to allocate funds from their operating budgets sufficient to take full advantage of technological applications. Capitalization costs have imposed a significant barrier. Is it the Committee's intent that substantial technological equipment necessary to provide access to information, that is, equipment in the nature of a capital investment, may be a permissible use of Title II funds, even though it may not be part of a construction or renovation project.

Preservation Cooperation

Dr. F. William Summers, President of the American Library Association, testified that a significant part of our nation's library resources is endangered and must be preserved. "The acidic nature of the paper used for books, magazines, newspapers, and government records since about 1850 will self-destruct. It turns yellow and brittle, and literally breaks or crumbles with use." Cramped and unsuitable shelving conditions in many libraries also endanger library materials which will be needed by future generations.

Mr. Summers' testimony went on to show that in several states small amounts of LSCA funds have been allocated for aspects of preservation. These initiatives have largely been undertaken under Title III as part of a state's resource sharing program in which the state library works with universities, all types of libraries, information centers, networks and others.

The Committee added language to Title III to authorize an optional statewide preservation cooperation program in which state library agencies would work with libraries, historical societies, archives, scholarly organizations and other agencies in a comprehensive program to ensure preservation of endangered library materials. States which choose this option would be required to develop a plan specifying the method by which the state library agency would work with these organizations to ensure that endangered materials are preserved.

The added emphasis on preservation in S. 1291 parallels the Senate's recent action in passing S.J. Res. 57, a resolution that would establish a national policy to encourage the use of acid-free, permanent paper for books, records, and publications of enduring value. Forty-seven Senators joined in co-sponsoring this resolution which urgently recommends that federal agencies require the use of such paper for publications of enduring value and the use of archival quality papers for permanently valuable records. The resolution urges that similar action be taken in the private sector to curb the manufacture and use of acid papers in favor of nonacidic alkaline paper. Every book that is produced on acid free paper today reduces the total number of volumes requiring costly deacidification, and frees up preservation resources which can be used to attack the backlog of endangered publications dating back to 1850.

Maintenance of Effort

Current law includes provisions to insure state maintenance of effort in respect to annual financial contributions from state and local sources. Money that is spent each year cannot be less than the amount spent the previous two years and requires that these

Title I funds be matched by state and local sources. The Committee found that the "maintenance of effort" requirement has proven helpful in securing and maintaining state and local support for LSCA programs with some reporting expenditures in excess of that required by the Act.

LSCA programs have changed with successive reauthorizations, but there has been no updating of the "maintenance of effort" requirement. The Committee found that overmatching resulted in excessive paperwork and bookkeeping. Therefore, the bill permits state library agencies to review their state and local expenditures under the Act every five years. Then a current report must be filed with the Secretary to measure the "maintenance of effort". This provision can be used to measure the FY 1990 "maintenance of effort" using FY 1988 and 1989 data.

Major Urban Resource Libraries

Current law restricts the amount allocated to a major urban resource library [MURL] from falling below the amount the library received in the preceding year. When the LSCA title I appropriation exceeds $60 million then, up to one half of the funds over $60 million must be granted to the MURLS libraries. If an appropriation, falls below the previous year's, the state is required to maintain the current level of funding to the major urban resource library despite a decrease in federal monies.

It is the intent of the Committee to address this inequity by permitting payments to MURLS libraries to be ratably reduced in proportion to the reduction in federal appropriations to the state. The bill also authorizes a ratable reduction to occur if the 1990 census shows the population of a city has decreased.

Child Care and Intergenerational Library Service

The Committee found that child care services and facilities were an increasing need of families across the nation. Research revealed that more and more children are being left unattended in libraries after school. Library staff time is increasingly being spent ensuring that these children do not disturb other patrons or damage library property, thus decreasing the time that can be spent serving the needs of all library visitors. According to a 1988 report prepared by the Service to Children Committee of the Public Library Association, the problem of "what to do with and about library 'latchkey children' has become one of the most rapidly developing public policy arenas."

The Committee found that one way to address this problem is through intergenerational programs. Using older volunteers to provide literacy and reading skills programs for children provides a meaningful way for older Americans to share their talents and it greatly benefits the children who receive both assistance in developing reading skills and special attention from an older adult. It also helps the staffs of public libraries who are taking time from their other duties to supervise these "latchkey children." The Committee recognizes that libraries are committed to helping children and believes that it is appropriate to provide assistance that will enable libraries to develop intergenerational programs in which older volunteers provide school literacy and reading skills programs for unsupervised school children during afterschool hours. It therefore found it appropriate to authorize the use of Title I funds for these activities.

The Committee also recognizes that libraries have long been in the forefront of providing books and other educational materials to young children. However, the Committee acknowledges that not all individuals are able to visit local libraries. The Committee hence found it appropriate to permit Title I funds to be used to assist libraries in providing bookmobiles, or other appropriate vehicles, to deliver library materials to licensed or certified family-based or group child-care providers, child care centers, or other providers that meet state eligibility requirements.

ILLITERACY

The Committee would also like to recognize the growing concern among Americans about the high rate of illiteracy in the United States. It therefore recommends that the maximum grant award under title VI be raised to $35,000 from $25,000. It is anticipated that the larger grant size will have a greater impact in helping to address the profound problem of adult illiteracy in this country. These funds, which are made available on the basis of a national competition, are used for the operation of adult literacy programs in public libraries. The Committee also doubled the authorization amount for title VI from $5 million to $10 million to emphasize the concern it has for the high rate of illiteracy in our nation.

Recognizing the need to improve efforts to curb the high incidence of adult functional illiteracy, the Committee has added library literacy centers as an allowable purpose for Title I monies. These centers could operate in existing local libraries under the direction of the State Library Administrative Agency in conjunction with other bodies such as the State Educational Agency, the State Employment Agency and public television. Funds could be used to produce video cassettes to be distributed by the local library or to be viewed by the public within the library itself.

EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT

The Committee also felt that there was a need for accountability in the funds expended under the Act. It thus added a new title to the original Act, Title VII—Evaluation and Assessment, with an authorization amount of $500,000. The purposes of these funds are to provide a review of programs supported under the authority of the Library Services and Construction Act and the degree of their effectiveness in reaching their intended target populations. The Committee found there is no large body of evaluation research from which to evaluate programs and to promote them to the library community for replication. In a series of regional technical assistance workshops conducted by the Department of Education’s Office of Library Programs, over 100 state library staff members indicated a need for assistance in improving the quality of evaluation of LSCA funded projects. Title VII will aid the library profession in following a more scientific approach in demonstrating program effectiveness, efficiency, practical and statistical significance.
COST ESTIMATE

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

The Committee has determined that there will be no increases in the regulatory burden imposed by this bill.

(5) There is hereby authorized for the purpose of evaluation (directly or by grants or contracts) of programs authorized by this Act, such sums as Congress may deem necessary for any fiscal year.

(b) The amount of any State's allotment under subsection (a) for any fiscal year from any appropriation made pursuant to clause (1), (2), or (3) of section 4(a) which the Secretary deems will not be required for the period and the purpose for which such allotment is available for carrying out the State's annual program shall be available for reallocation from time to time on such dates during

(2) Any allotted funds for which an Indian tribe does not apply, or applies but does not qualify, shall be reallocated by the Secretary among Indian tribes which have submitted approved plans under section 404. In making such allocations (A) no funds shall be allocated to an Indian tribe unless such funds will be administered by a librarian, and (B) the Secretary shall take into account the needs of Indian tribes for such allocations to carry out the activities described in section 402(b).

(c)(1) From one-half of the sums available pursuant to the second sentence of section 4(a) for any fiscal year, the Secretary shall allot an equal amount to each Indian tribe that submits an approved application under section 403.

(2) From the remaining one-half of the sums available pursuant to such second sentence, the Secretary shall make allocations to Indian tribes that (A) are receiving an allocation under paragraph (1) of this subsection for such fiscal year; and (B) have submitted approved applications under section 404.

(3) In making allocations under paragraph (2)—
   (A) no funds shall be allocated to an Indian tribe unless such funds will be administered by a librarian; and
   (B) the Secretary shall take into account the needs of Indian tribes for such allocations to carry out the activities described in section 402(b).

(b) In making allocations under this subsection, the Secretary shall take such actions as may be necessary to prevent an allocation from being received to serve the same population by any two or more of the following entities as defined in, or established pursuant to, the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act:

   (C) a village corporation.

(d) The long-range program of any State for carrying out the purposes of this Act shall be developed in consultation with the Secretary and shall—

(h) The Secretary shall coordinate programs under titles V and VI of this Act with the programs assisted by titles I, II, and III of this Act, and shall provide to the head of the State library administrative agency the opportunity to comment on any application for a grant under title V or VI of this Act prior to the awarding of the grant, in order to assure that such grants from the Secretary are for purposes consistent with the long-range program required under subsection (d) of this section.
PAYMENTS

SEC. 7. (a) From the allotments available therefor under section 5 from appropriations pursuant to clause (1), (2), or (3) of section 4(a), the Secretary shall pay to each State which has a basic State plan approved under section 6(a)(1), an annual program and a long-range program as defined in sections 3(12) and (13) an amount equal to the Federal share of the total sums expended by the State and its political subdivisions in carrying out such plan, except that no payments shall be made from appropriations pursuant to such paragraph (1) for the purposes of title I to any State (other than the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands) for any fiscal year unless the Secretary determines that—

(1) there will be available for expenditure under the programs from State and local sources during the fiscal year for which the allotment is made—

(A) sums sufficient to enable the State to receive for the purpose of carrying out the programs payments in an amount not less than the minimum allotment for that State for the purpose; and

(B) not less than the total amount actually expended, in the areas covered by the programs for such year, for the purposes of such programs from such sources in the second preceding fiscal year; and

(2) there will be available for expenditure for the purposes of the programs from State sources during the fiscal year for which the allotment is made not less than the total amount actually expended for such purposes from such sources in the second preceding fiscal year.

(b) In fiscal year 1990, and every fifth fiscal year thereafter, each State library agency may review its expenditures in the second fiscal year preceding fiscal year for which the determination is made under the programs from State and local sources and file with the Secretary a statement to establish a current, revised expenditure level to be used for measuring the maintenance of effort required under subsections (a)(1)(B) and (a)(2).

(b)(c)(1) For the purpose of this section, the “Federal share” for any State shall be, except as is provided otherwise in title III, 100 per centum less the State percentage, and the State percentage shall be that percentage which bears the same ratio to 50 per centum as the per capita income of such State bears to the per capita income of all the States (excluding Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and the Northern Mariana Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands), except that (A) the Federal share shall in no case be more than 66 per centum, or less than 33 per centum, and (B) the Federal share for Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, and the Northern Mariana Islands and the Virgin Islands shall be 66 per centum, and (C) the Federal share for the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands shall be 100 per centum.

(2) The “Federal share” for each State shall be promulgated by the Security within sixty days after the beginning of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1971, and of every second fiscal year thereafter, on the basis of the average per capita incomes of each of the States and of all the States (excluding Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Virgin Islands, the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands), for the three most recent consecutive years for which satisfactory data are available to him from the Department of Commerce. Such promulgation shall be conclusive for each of the two fiscal years beginning after the promulgation.

[(c)] (d) From the sums available pursuant to the second sentence of section 4(a), the Secretary shall pay to each Indian tribe which has an approved application under section 403 an amount equal to such tribe's allotment under section 5(c)(1) and shall pay each Indian tribe which has an approved plan under section 404 an amount equal to such tribe's additional allocation under section 6(g)(2), except that such additional allocation shall not exceed 80 percent of the cost of carrying out such plan.

TITLE I—PUBLIC LIBRARY SERVICES

Sec. 101. The Secretary shall carry out a program of making grants from sums appropriated pursuant to section 4(a)(1) to States which have approved basic State plans under section 6 and have submitted annual programs under section 103—

(1) for the extension of public library services to areas and populations without such services and the improvement of such services to areas and populations to ensure that such services are adequate to meet user needs and to make library services accessible to individuals who, by reason of distance, residence, handicap, age, literacy level, or other disadvantage, are unable to receive the benefits of public library services regularly made available to the public;

(2) for adapting public library services to meet particular needs of individuals with the States;

(3) for assisting libraries to serve as community information referral centers;

(4) for assisting libraries in providing literacy programs for adults and school dropouts in cooperation with other agencies and organizations, if appropriate;

(5) for assisting libraries in developing intergenerational library programs that will match older adult volunteers with libraries interested in developing after school literacy and reading skills programs for unsupervised school children during afterschool hours;

(6) for assisting libraries in providing mobile library services and programs to licensed or certified child-care providers or child-care centers;

(7) to establish and support model library literacy centers, coordinated by the State library administrative agency with other interested State agencies and nonprofit organizations to reduce the number of functionally illiterate individuals and to help them reach full employment;

[(5)] (8) for strengthening State library administrative agencies; [and]
and (10) for assisting public libraries in making effective use of technology to improve library and information services.

Sec. 102. (a) Funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) of section 4(a) shall be available for grants to States from allotments under section 5(a) for the purpose of paying the Federal share of the cost of carrying out State plans submitted and approved under section 6 and section 103. Except as is provided in subsection (b), grants to States under this title may be used solely—

(1) for planning for, and taking other steps leading to the development of, programs and projects designed to assist libraries to serve as community centers for information and referral and to extend and improve library services, as provided in clause (2);

(2) for (A) extending public library services to geographical areas and groups of persons without such services and improving such services in such areas and for such groups as may have inadequate public library services; and (B) establishing, expanding, and operating programs and projects to provide (i) State institutional library services, (ii) library services to the physically handicapped, and (iii) library services for the disadvantaged in urban and rural areas; and (C) strengthening metropolitan public libraries which serve as national or regional resource centers; and

(3) for supporting and expanding library services of major urban resource libraries which, because of the value of the collections of such libraries to individual users and to other libraries, need special assistance to furnish services at a level required to meet the demands made for such services.

No grant may be made under clause (3) of this subsection unless the major urban resource library provides services to users throughout the regional area in which such library is located. In carrying out its program to accomplish the purposes of this title, a State may make subgrants to library systems or networks which include libraries other than public libraries, if the purpose of the subgrant is to improve services for public library patrons.

(b) Subject to the provisions of section 8 and such limitations and criteria as the Secretary shall establish by regulation, grants to States under this Act may be used (1) to pay the cost of administering the State plans submitted and approved under this Act (including obtaining the services of consultants), statewide planning for and evaluation of library services, dissemination of information concerning library services, and the activities of such advisory groups and panels as may be necessary to assist the State library administrative agency in carrying out its functions under this title, and (2) for strengthening the capacity of State library administrative agencies for meeting the needs of the people of the States.

(c)(1) Subject to such criteria as the Secretary shall establish by regulation, in any fiscal year in which sums appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) of section 4(a) (excluding the amount made available for Indian tribes and Hawaiian natives) exceed $60,000,000, each State which is subject to the provisions of this subsection shall reserve that portion of the allotment of each State attributable to the amount in excess of $60,000,000 in that fiscal year in the manner required in paragraph (2).

(2)(A) In each State having one or more cities with a population of 100,000 or more individuals, as determined by the Secretary, and in which the aggregate population of such cities does not exceed 50 percent of the total population of the State, the portion of the excess amount specified in paragraph (1) shall be reserved for the purposes described in subsection (a)(3) of this section in accordance with clause (2) of section 103 in an amount which bears the same ratio to the total of such excess amount as the aggregate population of such cities bears to the total population of such State.

(B) In each State having one or more cities with a population of 100,000 or more individuals, as determined by the Secretary, and in which the aggregate population of such cities exceeds 50 percent of the total population of the State, 50 percent of the excess amount specified in paragraph (1) shall be reserved for the purposes described in subsection (a)(3) in accordance with clause (2) of section 103.

(C) Any State which does not include any city with a population of 100,000 or more individuals, as determined by the Secretary, shall not be subject to the provisions of this subsection.

(3) No State shall, in carrying out the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection, reduce the amount paid to any major urban resource library below the amount that such library received in the year preceding the year for which the determination is made under such paragraph (2), except that such amount shall be ratably reduced to the extent that the total Federal allocations to the State under section 5 for purposes of this title for the applicable fiscal year are reduced or that the 1990 Census shows the population of the city served by such library has decreased.

Sec. 103. Any State desiring to receive a grant from its allotment for the purposes of this title for any fiscal year shall, in addition to having submitted, and having had approved, a basic State plan under section 6, submit for that fiscal year an annual program for library services. Such program shall be submitted at such time, in such form, and contain such information as the Secretary may require by regulation, and shall—

(1) set forth a program, subject to clause (2) of this section, for the year submitted under which funds paid to the State from appropriations pursuant to paragraph (1) of section 4(a) for that year will be used, consistent with its long-range program, solely for the purposes set forth in section 102;

(2) set forth a program for the year submitted under which the amount reserved by the State under section 102(c), if applicable, will be used for the purposes set forth in clause (3) of section 102(a);

(3) set forth the criteria used in allocating such funds among such purposes, which criteria shall insure that the State will expend from Federal, State, and local sources an amount not less than the amount expended by the State from such sources for State institutional library services, and library services to the physically handicapped [and institutionalized individuals] during the second fiscal year preceding the fiscal year for which the determination is made;
(4) describe the uses of funds for programs for the elderly; [C, which may include (A) the training of librarians to work with the elderly; (B) the conduct of special library programs for the elderly particularly for the elderly who are handicapped; (C) the purchase of special library materials for use by the elderly; (D) the payment of salaries for elderly persons who wish to work in libraries as assistants on programs for the elderly; (E) the provision of in-home visits by librarians and other library personnel to the elderly; (F) the establishment of outreach programs to notify the elderly of library services available to them; and (G) the furnishing of transportation to enable the elderly to have access to library services;]

[(5) describe the manner in which funds for programs for handicapped individuals will be used to make library services more accessible to such individuals;]

(5) describe the uses of funds to make library services and programs more accessible to handicapped individuals;

(6) include such information, policies, and procedures as will assure that the activities to be carried out during that year are consistent with the long-range program; and

(7) include an extension of the long-range program, taking into consideration the results of evaluations.

No State shall, in carrying out the provisions of clause (2) of this section, reduce the amount paid to an urban resource library below the amount that such library received in the year preceding the year for which the determination is made under such clause (2).

The amount which a State is required to expend pursuant to clause (3) of this section shall be ratably reduced to the extent that Federal allocations to the State are reduced.

TITLE II—PUBLIC LIBRARY CONSTRUCTION AND TECHNOLOGY ENHANCEMENT

GRANTS TO STATES FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY CONSTRUCTION AND LIBRARY AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY ENHANCEMENT

Sec. 201. The Secretary shall carry out a program of making grants to States which have had approved a basic State plan under section 6 and have submitted a long-range program and annually appropriately updated programs under section 203 for the construction and technology enhancement of public libraries.

Sec. 202. (a) Funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (2) of section 4(a) shall be available for grants to States from allotments under section 5(a) for the purpose of paying the Federal share of the cost of construction and technology enhancement projects carried under State plans. Such grants shall be used for the construction and technology enhancement (as defined in section 3(2)] sections 3(2) and 3(19) respectively of public libraries.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (a), the Federal share of the cost of construction and technology enhancement of any project assisted under this title shall not exceed one-half of the total cost of such project.

(c) If, within 20 years after completion of construction of any library facility which has been constructed in part with funds made available under this title—
(1) the recipient (or its successor in title or possession) ceases or fails to be a public or nonprofit institution, or
(2) the facility ceases to be used as a library facility, unless the Secretary determines that there is good cause for releasing the institution from its obligation, the United States shall be entitled to recover from such recipient (or successor) an amount which bears the same ratio to the value of the facility at that time (or part thereof constituting an approved project or projects) as the amount of the Federal grant bore to the cost of such facility (or part thereof). The value shall be determined by the parties or by action brought in the United States district court for the district in which the facility is located.

STATE ANNUAL PROGRAM FOR THE CONSTRUCTION AND TECHNOLOGY ENHANCEMENT OF PUBLIC LIBRARIES

SEC. 203. Any State desiring to receive a grant from its allotment for the purpose of this title for any fiscal year shall, in addition to having submitted, and having had approved, a basic State plan under section 6, submit such projects as the State may approve and are consistent with its long-range program.

Such projects shall be submitted at such time and contain such information as the Secretary may require by regulation and shall—
(1) for the year submitted under which funds are paid to the State from appropriations pursuant to paragraph (2) of section 4(a) for that year, be used, consistent with the State's long-range program, for the construction and technology enhancement of public libraries in areas of the State which are without the library facilities necessary to provide adequate library services;
(2) follow the criteria, policies, and procedures for the approval of applications for the construction and technology enhancement of public library facilities under the long-range program;
(3) follow policies and procedures which will insure that every local or other public agency whose application for funds under the plan with respect to a project for construction and technology enhancement of public library facilities is denied will be given an opportunity for a hearing before the State library administrative agency;
(4) include an extension of the long-range program taking into consideration the results of evaluations and;

Details may not add to totals because of rounding.

The costs of this bill fall in Function 500.

Basis of estimate: The cost estimate of S. 1291, the Library Services and Construction Act Amendments of 1989, reflects the new and extended authorization levels for the library programs. The 1990 authorization levels for all of the programs are those specified in the bill. The 1991 through 1994 authorization levels are authorized at such sums as may be necessary. The estimate of these out-year levels reflect the 1990 stated level adjusted for inflation.
Estimated total outlays assume that the authorized levels are fully funded at the beginning of the fiscal year. Estimated outlays reflect current spending patterns.

6. Estimated cost to State and local government: Approximately 98 percent of the federal funds for public library services, public library construction, and interlibrary cooperation grants are basic grants to states. These grants are distributed to the states by a formula based on total resident population.

In S. 1291, the public library services state grants are authorized at $98 million for 1990; an increase of $19 million over the 1989 appropriation level. These grants require state and local governments to match federal dollars at a level ranging from 33 percent of total services costs to 66 percent of total costs depending on the state's per capita income. The public library construction grants are authorized at $54 million in 1990; a $32 million increase over the 1989 appropriations. These grants require that State and local governments pay half of the cost of each construction project. The interlibrary cooperation grants have no federal funds matching requirements.

The foreign language material grants, library literacy grants, and evaluation and assessment grants are all awarded on a competitive basis. Local libraries and state libraries may apply for these grants. There are no federal funds matching requirements.

7. Estimate comparison: None.
8. Previous CBO estimate: None.
