Mrs. Dorothy S. Isenberg
45 Elmire Street
Providence, Rhode Island 02906

Dear Mrs. Isenberg:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for the good news about the Grandparents Guild at the Children's Museum.

I am sending along a copy of the recently-published guide to programs at the National Endowment for the Arts to give you an idea of the types of projects currently being funded. Sadly, there is no specific category for children's museums but I intend to inquire about the appropriateness of the Expansion Arts Program and the Museum Program.

The application period for grants from the Institute of Museum Services extends into January. These are competitive grants to help museums with general operating costs. I would be delighted to express my support for this application if I could be informed when the final papers are submitted by the Museum to the Institute.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
