Dear Senator Kennedy,

For twenty years now, I have known Dr. Sheldon Hackney as the son-in-law of Clifford and Virginia Durr of Alabama -- who were, for many years, leaders in the New Deal ~~and other~~ important posts.

Dr. Hackney is a ^{of course} man of fine character with ^{in many} high integrity and intelligence, and he is a supporter of the First Amendment. I hope you will give him every consideration as Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities. I believe Sheldon is a gentleman, a scholar and a very able person to head the Humanities.

With high regards,

The Honorable Edward M. Kennedy
