Gay group granted constitutionality

by Susan Heimann

The Student Senate recognized the Gay Student Coalition by granting it constitutionality Monday night.

Spokesperson for the newly approved gay organization, Carl Swanson, said some of the group's ambitions will be, "to acquaint people that we exist, to let them know we are here if they are interested."

He said the group is political, and that it will probably lobby for equality for gays in jobs and housing. Speaking of finding a job after graduation, he said, "See if I can, because I'm gay."

During other meeting activity, Fran Pacheco, student body vice-president, said interviews for chairperson of the book co-op will be held today starting at 2:30 p.m. in room 305 of the union.

The Senate passed a motion to survey the reactions of parents of out-of-state students to the proposed 12.4 percent increase in tuition.

The committee said it will also send out letters to students' parents urging them to write to their state representatives and Gov. J. Joseph Garrahy concerning the danger of some colleges within the University losing accreditation.
