OUTFLICKS

You've seen "Philadelphia", now see Lesbian and Gay lives through the eyes of independent film-makers.

Sponsored by the Committee to Eliminate Homophobia and Heterosexism and the Gay Lesbian Bisexual Association.
Supported with a grant from the Richard Katzoff Memorial Fund.

White Hall Auditorium (Room 113), URI
7:00 p.m.

Tuesday, February 22, 1994:

Just Because of Who We Are* (1986, 28 min.).

Produced by the Heramedia Collective, this documentary focuses on the overlooked issue of violence against lesbians exposing these acts of violence and harassment as well as attempts at institutional "cures" of lesbian women.

Tongues Untied* (1989, 55 min.).

Emmy Award-winning director Marlon Riggs' provocative work detailing the homophobia and racism that affect the lives of African American gay men is, due to Riggs' creative genius, much more: it is a celebration of African American gay male culture.

A discussion follows the films with guest moderator, Mr. James Alston, a social worker with FACTS: Family AIDS Center for Treatment and Support, Providence, RI.

All films are free and open to the public. The auditorium is accessible. For individuals needing special assistance, please call 792-2442.
