Dear Liv,

Several days ago Mr. Rockefeller wrote a letter to Congressmen Quie and Perkins. For your information, a copy of that letter is enclosed.

I think it does a good job of expressing Mr. Rockefeller's sense of substance of the matter and of the importance that he places upon it. You should know also that I had good meetings with Marty LaVor and Tom Birch. Marty remains pretty adamant, but Birch seemed most receptive.

Good luck and best regards,

Sincerely,
