Dear Michel:

Thank you so much for your recent letter and for sending along a copy of your note to Vice-President Bush.

You are indeed kind to propose me for the Chairmanship of the Subcommittee which I have been affiliated with for so long. However, owing to the rules of the Senate, this is really quite impossible as long as the Republicans hold a majority of seats. Your warm thoughts are nevertheless very deeply appreciated.

I have asked Mr. Crary to telephone you as you have asked and, hopefully, the two of you will have talked by the time this letter reaches you.

With warm personal regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
