RE: Background for RI Library Conference: Sat Morning 3/16

Your remarks for the RI Governor's Conference on Libraries are attached. Your legislation calling for a White House Conference on Libraries is responsible for this event. Each state - according to the legislation - could hold a state level library conference at which delegates would be elected to attend the national conference which will be in Washington this July. This is the RI conference and you are kicking it off with this appearance.

Bruce Daniels, Joan Reeves, and Carol DiPrete will all be there and are mentioned in your remarks. Also a man named Bill Allen is mentioned. He is Chair of ~~the~~ this conference and also a Senior VP at the United Way. Apparently Governor Sundlun will not be attending. Jack Reed, however, will be there.

You are due at the Biltmore at 9:30am on Saturday and they know you have to leave at 9:45am.
