Dear Michel:

Thank you for your recent letter with the news of your terrible accident. I am relieved to know, however, that your recovery has been a speedy one.

I want to pass along my warmest congratulations on the occasion of your induction into the Russian-American Hall of Fame. This is a well-deserved honor.

The new Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts is John Frohnmayer, an attorney from Portland, Oregon, who at one time was the Chairman of the Oregon State Arts Council. I like him and believe he will develop into a strong and effective Chairman.

The new Director of the Endowment's Visual Arts Program is Susan Lubowsky, a former curator at a New York City museum.

As you requested, I am sending along the most recent Annual Report (1988) that is available from the National Endowment for the Arts.

With warmest personal regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
