Mr. Charles Grossman
224 Armington Street
Cranston, RI 02905

Dear Mr. Grossman:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for your kind invitation to join the Lawyers Committee for the Arts of the Rhode Island Bar Association as an honorary member.

I would be very happy to lend my name as an honorary member. This arrangement, however, must be free of any expectation that I will attend meetings or assist in fund raising. As I am sure you will understand, I have many commitments and it is impossible to give personal attention to all of the projects that interest me.

Your efforts on behalf of the arts in Rhode Island are much appreciated.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman

MEMORANDUM

9/24

Senator:

I recommend lending name only to this project - as I think I have made clear in the letter

Grossman is competent and serious about generating a new climate in the arts in RI.
