IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 11, 1975

Ms. ABzug introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

A BILL

To amend the National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act of 1965 to provide that the National Endowment for the Arts shall carry out an emergency program for the employment of artists during any fiscal year in which the national rate of unemployment exceeds 6.5 per centum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That the Congress of the United States recognizes the contributions which artists make to the cultural life of each community throughout the Nation as well as to the Nation as a whole; and that the talents and skills of these professional workers—painters, musicians, actors, writers, and others—make up a part of the national wealth which the Nation cannot afford to lose; and that in a period of economic decline, private and individual support for the arts contracts causing great numbers of persons in artistic occupations to become unemployed; and that there is a record of highly successful artistic contributions to public works projects.

Sec. 2. The National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act of 1965 is amended by redesignating sections 6 through 11 as sections 7 through 12, respectively, and by inserting immediately after section 5 thereof the following new section:

"EMERGENCY PROGRAM FOR EMPLOYMENT OF ARTISTS

"Sec. 6. (a) The Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts with the advice of the National Council on the Arts, shall carry out a program, directly and through grants-in-aid to States, during any fiscal year in which the seasonally adjusted national rate of unemployment published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Labor exceeds 6.5 per centum as determined by the Chairman, of employment of unemployed artists in projects or productions in which—

"(1) funds under this section will not be used to pay artists employed in jobs in such projects or productions at a rate in excess of $10,000 per year,

"(2) no funds received under this section will be used to hire any artist to fill a job opening created by the action of an employer in laying off or terminating the employment of any regular employee not supported under this section in anticipation of filling the vacancy so created by hiring an employee to be supported under this section.

"(3) not less than 90 per centum of the funds received under this section for each such project or production shall be expended only for wages and employment benefits to artists employed in jobs in such project or production,

"(4) a substantial number of the artists employed in jobs in each such project or production shall be artists of recognized artistic ability, as determined under standards established by the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, and

"(5) such standards for such projects or productions as the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts deems appropriate are met.

The program carried out under this section shall include a national program of projects and productions directly carried out by the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, which shall include projects and productions in commemoration of the bicentennial of the American Revolution.

"(b) In carrying out the program under subsection (a), the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts shall coordinate such program with programs for public service employment under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 and with other appropriate public programs providing employment for unemployed individuals.

"(c) For purposes of this section, the term 'artist' means any individual who, under regulations established by the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, is normally employed in the production of any one or more of the arts, and the term 'unemployed', when used with respect to an artist, means an artist who is an underemployed person or an unemployed person as defined in sections 701(a)(11) and 701(a)(12) of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, respectively.

"(d) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated for purposes of this section $20,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976."
