Changes incorporated in Pell bill S.1429 to extend Museum Services Act	Recommended by	Comments
Extends Act for TWO years	Senator Pell	Two years will allow time to re-view all federal museum programs as well as the question of IMS location.
Permits IMS to hire up to one-fifth of full-time staff as excepted personnel	IMS	This will allow IMS to hire experts in special fields when they are needed without going through Department channels. There is no category on the federal register for "museum personnel". Both NEA and NEH have limited staff who are excepted personnel.
Permits IMS to fund museum service organizations with the following restrictions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - all contracts and cooperative agreements will be limited to one year periods. - funding will not be allowed for operational expenses (like the regular grants to museums) - support limited to 5% of total appropriation per year 	IMS, AAM and heavy pressure from the museum field	Funding of museum service organizations was vigorously pushed in the hearings. I am for it with the restrictions we have added. The bill defines a professional museum organization as "a non-profit professional museum-related organization, institution or association which engages in activities designed to advance the well-being of museums and the museum profession." (Smithsonian is very concerned about Lee's reach. Ripley personally does not want IMS to have this authority but he is unwilling to expand this type of support thru the Smithsonian, i.e. National Museum Act. Peter Powers and Paul Perrot are neutral on the issue.)
Allows IMS to establish own grant review procedures	IMS	Gives IMS flexibility to establish own review procedures independent of Department of Education. George Seybolt spoke to you about this. The cost of doing this may be prohibitive, however.
