RE: Joint Hearing at White House Conference on Libraries

After you agreed to co-chair a joint hearing at the White House Conference, I informed the organizers that you would be available and plans are well underway for your participation. You would be co-chairing with Pat Williams.

To summarize....this hearing is to be held during the Conference at the Ramada Renaissance Hotel downtown on Friday, July 12. As of now you are expected to be there from 9:30am to open it and stay for about 90 minutes. We can work something out if you can only stay an hour. We also may be able to begin at 9:00am if this would work better for you.

It is unlikely that the time of the hearing can be changed since it is incorporated into the very tight schedule already set for the 4 day conference. But since there is now a Democratic Senate retreat that day, we are checking to see if there are other conflicts. If there are, the hearing may have to be rescheduled.

There is a chance that Barbara Bush will agree to be the lead witness.
