The world rolls on—through the million years, and, with its brood a little though,
That very mind control all.

And all who live, and breathe, and walk,
And all within the men who love and work,
And all who love and work,
And all who love and work,

The world rolls on; the world rolls on,
Through the million years, and, with its brood a little though,
That very mind control all.
ANNUAL MEETING IN KANSAS—In the midst of a renaissance in the Masonic lodges of the state, the Kansas State Grand Lodge, under the gavel of W. H. Moehlenkamp, is opening its annual meeting this week in Wichita. The state is one of the most active in the country in Masonic work, and the annual meeting is always a grand event for the lodges throughout the state.

PENDLETON'S Finest Wools—Formerly a part of Pendleton's line, this new cloth has been designed specifically for Pendleton's customers. The fabric features a blend of wool and cotton, providing excellent durability and breathability. The Pendleton Men's Collection includes a variety of styles, from casual shirts to formal suits. For more information, visit your local Pendleton store or shop online.

FINANCIAL REPORT—In its latest financial report, the company has reported a significant increase in revenue. The company attributes this growth to increased market demand and improved operational efficiency. The company continues to invest in research and development to maintain its competitive edge in the industry.

PAULINA BRIDGE—Construction has begun on the new Paulina Bridge, which will connect two important transportation corridors. The bridge is expected to alleviate traffic congestion and improve connectivity between the two regions. The project is estimated to be completed within the next two years.

WINDSOR GARDEN—Windsor Garden is expanding its offerings with a new line of luxury homes. The new homes feature modern designs and high-end finishes, catering to the growing demand for residential real estate in the area. The development aims to provide a range of housing options to meet the diverse needs of potential homeowners.
