

University of Rhode Island

DigitalCommons@URI

Pell Correspondence (1985-1992)

Education: National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities, Subject Files II (1962-1996)

11-24-1985

Pell Correspondence (1985-1992): Correspondence 11

William V. Sotirovich

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_II_63

Recommended Citation

Sotirovich, William V., "Pell Correspondence (1985-1992): Correspondence 11" (1985). Pell Correspondence (1985-1992). Paper 3.

https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_II_63/3https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_II_63/3

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Education: National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities, Subject Files II (1962-1996) at DigitalCommons@URI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pell Correspondence (1985-1992) by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@etal.uri.edu.

RECEIVED

DEC 02 1985

WASHINGTON, D.C.

AC
F21

(212) 477- 1602

4 Washington Square Village
New York, New York 10012
11. 24. 1985

The Hon. Claiborne Pell
U. S. Senator
Sk. 335 - Russell Building
U. S. Congress , N. W.
Washington D. C. 20510

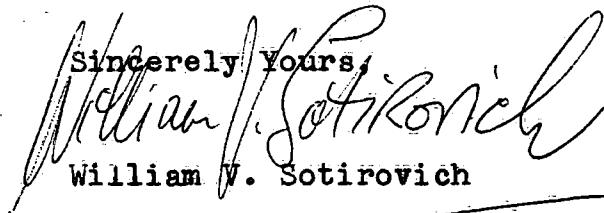

Dear Senator Pell:

Thank you for your kind consideration to join a committee for the proposed Exhibition of the Portraits of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Michael Werboff was indeed happy to hear these news.

After talking with you on the phone last week, I carefully re-read your "Power and Policy", and found it a most stimulating reading and a perfect outline for the role of our country in Foreign Affairs. "Power and Policy" should be read by every American since its contents and general guidelines are as valid today as they were at the time when the book was first published.

I hope that I can meet with you one day, and in the meantime I shall keep you informed regarding future developments on the proposed M. Werboff's Exhibition of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence project.

Sincerely Yours,

William V. Sotirovich