The Honorable Claiborne Pell
 Committee on Labor and Human Resources
 U.S. Senate, 335 SROB
 Washington, D.C. 20510-3901

Dear Senator Pell:

I am writing, both on behalf of the 12,000 members of the College Art Association and personally, to thank you for your principled stand for excellence and distinction on the National Council on the Humanities, for opposing the nomination of Carol Iannone on the basis of merit alone, and for your strong statement calling for quality appointments.

We are very grateful for the care and thought you gave to the nomination and your serious consideration of the issues. The arts and humanities are indeed fortunate to have you as an ally. We commend you for your efforts.

Sincerely,

 Susan Ball, Ph.D.
 Executive Director
