Dear Senator Pell:

We have learned that you plan to hold a hearing on the Museum Services Act to determine the extent of museum needs in the United States.

On behalf of our Director, Anthony N. Landreau, who will be returning from out of town before your hearing, I wish to request that he be given an opportunity to present his personal statement on this subject to your Committee on Thursday, July 19, 1973. A written summary of his remarks will be given to you at that time.

Sincerely,
