CHIEF OFFICERS OF STATE LIBRARY AGENCIES

April 4, 1989

Mr. Alexander Crary
Senate Education, Arts
and Humanities Subcommittee
648 Senate Dirksen Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Sandy:

It was good to talk with you briefly Friday. As you know the Legislation Committee of the Chief Officers of State Library Agencies (COSLA) did some further work March 20 on the five technical amendments I sent you earlier. While the enclosed five points do not differ in substance from those in the March 16 version (the changes are largely to clarify the points), I thought it would be useful for you to have them in this form.

The COSLA board and the 50 chief officers will review these the week of the April 11 hearing and if there are further changes as a result of these discussions, I will get them to you immediately after April 11.

Thanks for your help and your continuing support of the Federal Library Services and Construction Act program. Please don't hesitate to call me if any of this raises a question.

Sincerely,

Joseph F. Shubert, Chair
Committee on Legislation and
State Librarian and Assistant
Commissioner for Libraries
