THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release August 3, 1990

The President today announced his intention to nominate the following individuals to be Members of the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science for terms indicated:

CAROL K. DIPRETE, of Rhode Island, for the remainder of the term expiring July 19, 1991. She would succeed George H. Nash. Currently, Mrs. DiPrete serves as Assistant Dean for Academic Services and Library at Roger Williams College in Bristol, Rhode Island.

J. MICHAEL FARRELL, of the District of Columbia, for the remainder of the term expiring July 19, 1991. He would succeed Sally Jo Vasiliou. Currently, Mr. Farrell serves as a Partner with the law firm of Marathas, Veale, Rothenberg and Phillips in Washington, D.C.