Dear Mr. Casey:

Just a brief note to thank you for taking the time to appear as a witness at the recent hearing on the proposed White House Conference on Library and Information Services before the Subcommittee on Education, Arts and Humanities.

I regret very much that a last minute change in scheduling required me, as Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to be on the Senate floor that morning to manage a major piece of legislation. I apologize for missing your live testimony. I understand, however, that the hearing went well and that your testimony will be particularly useful as we look toward establishing this important conference.

I am very appreciative of your participation.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts and Humanities
