Dear Mrs. Stevens:

I thought you should have copies of these two recent letters from Chairman Biddle at the Arts Endowment in regard to the Philharmonic's current application to the Orchestra Program.

Everything seems to be on schedule as far as the review process is concerned. The actual dollar amount that the program will have at its disposal, however, remains to be set.

Please be sure to let me know if there is any further way in which I can assist the Philharmonic.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
