Life and Death

"What is Life, Father?"

"It is the sum of our actions, my child," the angel of God, who tells of life and death, replied.

"What about the future?"

"The future is uncertain. It may bring happiness or pain. But with faith and love, we can create a better future.

"What about the past?"

"The past is a reflection of our present. We must learn from our mistakes to create a better future.

Let us remember that Life is a precious gift. Let us love and cherish it.

In the heart of the storm, she fought bravely, the wind howling and the rain pelting her. She was determined to reach her destination. She knew that she was not alone.

"I have faith in my daughter," she said, "and I believe she will succeed.

"But what if she fails?"

"I believe in her, and I believe in the power of love."

"Love is the only thing that can save us," she concluded, "and I will always love you.

"And the sky," she whispered, "is the limit of our imagination."
