1978

Rhode Island State Council on the Arts (1979-1992): Correspondence 10

Claiborne Pell

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_I_80

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_I_80/2

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Education: National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities, Subject Files I (1973-1996) at DigitalCommons@URI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Rhode Island State Council on the Arts (1979-1992) by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@etal.uri.edu.
Honorable J. Joseph Garrahy
Governor of Rhode Island
The State House
Providence, Rhode Island 02901

Dear Joe:

It has come to my attention that nominations for a number of vacant positions on the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts will be made in the next few weeks.

As you consider these appointments, I hope you will take into account the fact that the artist's community in Rhode Island has not had as full a representation on the Council as I feel they should have. I really believe that working artists, who are crucial contributors to our State's cultural life, should make up a significant part of the broad-based commission.

Perhaps the ideal mix would be to have a third of the twelve members being artists (or their representatives) drawn from Rhode Island's diverse and expanding artistic community. By working in concert with the other commissioners who represent educational, civic, and professional groups connected with the arts, these persons would give a needed boost to the vitality and creativity of the Council's programs and leadership.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell