Honorable Livingston L. Boddle
Chairman
National Endowment for the Arts
Washington, DC 20506

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am taking the liberty of sending you the resume of a very talented Rhode Islander named William Dennis.

I would like to suggest to you that Mr. Dennis be seriously considered for a position at the Arts Endowment. His experience has been in the Theater, but it is my firm belief that he would bring a high degree of competence and professionalism to any position in arts administration.

I have suggested to Mr. Dennis that he arrange to visit the Endowment when he comes to Washington. In the meantime, I look forward to hearing from you what procedures Mr. Dennis should follow in regard to employment at the Endowment.

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts, and Humanities
