Dear Professor Thomas:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for your good thoughts about the future of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

As soon as we have a new Chairman in place at the NEH, we will turn our attention to the reauthorization of the agency. I appreciate having your ideas about the NEH and will keep them in mind as we move into this process.

Thank you for taking the time to write me.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts & Humanities
