How Libraries Help Me

I think libraries will help me because I want to be a teacher. If I am a teacher someday, than I'll have to use a library. I know that teachers use libraries alot, so that's how they will help me when I'm older.

Now they help me by showing how much you can find out just by using a library computer. They also taught me that you can read almost any book you want because your free as a bird when you read almost anything.

It's neat to try it.
