Senator Claiborne Pell
U.S. Senate
Washington, DC 21510

Dear Senator Pell:

I am writing you about the proposed appointment of Edward Curran as chair of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

During the forthcoming hearings on Mr. Curran's appointment, I urge that the nominee be questioned about his goals for the NEH and his understanding of and attitude toward scholarship in the humanities.

This is a time of soul-searching on the role of the humanities within our educational system, and it is especially important to discover what Mr. Curran's true views might be.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Lena L. Lucietto, Ph.D.
