Dear Jack:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for sending along the excellent article by Abba Eban. He is indeed a thoughtful writer and I appreciate your sharing this with me.

Your high praise of Bill Bennett has been very encouraging. It is always reassuring to know that the Endowment is on a steady course and your own role as a Council member has also, in a large way, contributed to this.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
