Dear Senator Pell,

I am grateful to any assist you may be give me, and it has been well stated by you yesterday in your T.V. interview that WashDC can be "a cruel and transient" city! To assist me in understanding against such matters necessity I have outlined what I believe is fair settlement for the irreparable cover damage and devastating personal damage to myself and family, and because of your sincere interest I enclose a copy. Illegal acts and poor management practices are expensive for those who perpetrate them and those who fall victim.
Even the least moral person must admit that good practice and honesty is after all the best policy. N.S.A. is finally brought down as I followed up! In conversations with NEA's attorney, he mentioned NEA's shortness of funds being the obstacle. It was suggested to me (by other sources from NEA) that if my Senator thought this was a matter of sufficient importance (and I am sure you do view it so) I might appeal to him to introduce a bill or special appropriation, explaining

The irrevocable loan, etc and financial support of Re-Edmont, a special supplement of funds, to enable Re-Edmont to settle this matter with a check to me. By this letter I do request that you introduce such a bill to ensure my payment as I can assure you we are severely financed financially by NSA's illegal actions in this matter as proven illegal by MSPB's rulings of April 9 and April 15, which I believe you have, but I can send. I want to avoid going to Court on this matter if at all possible, and the excuse that NSA has no funds is not one I can accept with 3 severely and properly handicapped sons and no income and a cover ruined by NSA illegal actions well forewarned.

I enclose letter giving a run form on what I feel is a just settlement. Depending on when they settle and offer me the permanent civil service post (to guarantee against reprisals and ouster again) based on my fine record of service, the amount goes to between 25,000 and up to $152,900. May show for you soon, Warmest Regards
 J. H. (J.H. Kern)
