NARRAGANSETT TIMES.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1855.

EDITORIAL:—The subject of the two long volumes of 'The Newman' was arranged on that day. The House of Representatives met, but did not adjourn, on the 20th of last month, and voted the whole week in manuscript on their own orders to eject a Speaker. The last adjournment was on the 3rd of this month, and the House was recessed until the previous day, when the President of the Senate, Mr. Brown, was exalted to the Senate of the United States, as the late Speaker, in his place. The House then adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL CONSIDERATIONS.—The Senate was not in session, and the House was not called to order. The chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, Mr. S. D. Robinson, presented the report of the committee on ways and means, which was read and considered. The report of the committee was then ordered to be printed, and the bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole House. The report was then taken up and amended, and the bill was ordered to be read a second time.

CHICAGO FINANCING.

A few weeks ago a gentleman from New York arrived in Chicago, and expressed a desire to open a branch bank in the city. The gentleman was well known in the financial world, and was regarded as a safe and conservative investor. He was received with great cordiality, and was invited to visit the city and inspect the business interests of the city. The gentleman accepted the invitation, and was received with great enthusiasm. He was introduced to the leading business men of the city, and was shown the various financial institutions of the city. He was given a complete report of the financial condition of the city, and was assured that the city was in a sound financial condition.
