Dear Senator Pell,

Now that the President has nominated Mr. Frohnmayer as chairman of the National Endowment of the Arts (and I understand he is a very good man) I write to thank you for your generous support of my candidacy and to say once again how proud I was -- and am -- to have had your endorsement.

With the current difficulties facing the Endowment, all of us in the arts must rally to support you in whatever way we can. I want you to know that I'm at your service if there is ever anything I might do to help; you have only to ask.

Please know I mean every word of the above!

Yours sincerely,

Schuyler Chapin
