Dear Mr. Senator,

I am writing to you on behalf of a young and talented modern dance company to ask for your help and guidance in finding financial support.

The company -Wymmer Wymmer and Dancers- stands out first because of the highly creative new ideas of its choreographers, and second, because of its bright, educated and dedicated dancers.

Wymmer Wymmer and Dancers have been warmly acclaimed by the critics wherever they have performed. But money is non existent. One of the dancers- a phi beta kappa graduate from Stanford is working long hours as a waitress in order to survive, just to give you an exemple.

Could you please tell us what needs to be done in order to get financial support, how to go about it, whom to approach, at which level- local, state or federal- should it be most productive to make inquiries?

Your answer will be very much appreciated.

Yours sincerely

Nicole Prevost Logan
