Ms. Barbara Alpert
70 Esplanade
Middletown, Rhode Island 02840

Dear Ms. Alpert:

Alexander Crary has brought me up to date on your efforts to obtain permission to view the cave paintings in the Cantabrian area of Spain.

I have learned that a letter from the Spanish Embassy in Washington was sent to the Ministry of Culture in Madrid on August 29th. This letter requested official permission for your eventual visit to the caves. Owing to the inevitable mail delays, I would recommend waiting three to four weeks for a reply. Mr. Crary will stay in touch with the Spanish officials in Washington and notify you as soon as any word is received.

I will be happy to take further action on your behalf should it be necessary.

With warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
