RECEIVED
JUN 8 1981

Dear June and Mr Saltonstall, and Chairman EEOC,

I feel you have me on a yoyo swinging me between each other, time after time. Mr Saltonstall as in the past refers me back to June who never replies seemingly which is the reason I appeal to Mr Saltonstall who does reply that I will be hearing from June, who has not replied to date and then I am back to Mr Saltonstall...and nothing goes forward. Please take me off the yo-yo string and tell me what is the next step in my cases filed for

- 1) age discrimination and
- 2) reverse racial discrimination against the National Endowment for the Arts. It is 1981 and June has dragged this out by delay after delay, permitted by EEOC simply taking no action but to refer me back to June and stating its too busy to take over, or she must request it (that will be the day!), etc. If the law is not to be toyed with, this should stop.

I have won my MSPB case and will this one if you'll only speed things up a bit.

Sincerely,

John Hoare Kerr
