TO: Association Executive Directors and Other Friends of the White House Conference on Library and Information Services

FROM: Daniel W. Casey, Chair
NCLIS 1989 White House Conference Committee

RE: Organizations Meeting, Thursday, August 7, 1986, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m.

NCLIS is convening representatives from library and information service associations and related organizations to share progress and plans made by each group toward the 1989 White House Conference on Library and Information Services and to develop strategies for making certain the conference is held.

We invite you or your designated representative to participate in the luncheon meeting. We particularly want to encourage representatives who have been appointed to serve on your association's White House Conference Committee or liaisons you have specifically named to work on the '89 White House Conference. We do not have all the names of these people so we are asking you to be certain the appropriate people from your association are invited.

One spokesperson per group will be called upon to share what your association is doing or plans to do.

It will be an informal, Dutch treat luncheon meeting held at the Shoreham Hotel, 2500 Calvert Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. in the Embassy Room. The lunch will cost $20.00 per person. We regret that NCLIS does not have funds to assist with expenses.

The other members of the NCLIS 1989 White House Conference Committee are: Daniel Carter of Texas, Lee Edwards of Maryland, Byron Leeds of New Jersey, and Margaret Phelan of Kansas. Mary Alice Hedge Reszetar, NCLIS Associate Director, is the staff liaison to the committee.

I am enclosing the following information for your review in preparation for the meeting.

1. White House Conference Preliminary Design Group Report
2. Current list of Cosponsors
3. Impact of 1st White House Conference
4. Summary of WHCPDG Report
