FOR UPFRONT

The Committee to Eliminate Homophobia and Heterosexism, begun in 1991, is a group of students, faculty and staff, of all sexual orientations, working together to address the concerns of lesbians, gay men and bisexuals at the University. Last year, they launched the Safe Zone Campaign (stickers which indicate offices/rooms which are gay supportive) and this year are sponsoring "Outflicks" a film series which addresses gay and lesbian themes. To support their efforts, contributions can be made to the URI Foundation, Davis Hall, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI 02881, earmarked for the Committee.
